“ My aunt was a very strong, beautiful, independent woman. I always tried to help her around the house when I was there, and always told me that I didn't need to help, she had it herself. I would still try my best to help. I loved sitting downstairs with her and talking about random things, family, shows, friends, or how many good times she's had over the years. You gave good advice, and you always told me much you loved my hair and makeup 😊. You were the sweetest thing on this planet. No one could compare to you. We all miss you dearly but at least we know you're in no more pain. Rest easy, beautiful. I love you Aunt Pat
